◆ Exchange Program

Program Outline	Japanese Language Program (JLP) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ All Japanese Language subjects are taught in Japanese. All students are required to take a placement test when starting the program in Japan and are then divided into groups based on their Japanese proficiency. Instructors are committed to creating a positive and supportive learning environment in which students can realize their full potential. Subjects are designed to promote improvement in the four essential skills of Japanese language learning: speaking, listening, reading and writing. In addition, other subjects, such as Kanji and Japanese Affairs, are offered. The subjects in our Japanese Language Program are targeted at upper elementary, lower intermediate, upper intermediate and advanced-level students. ◆ This program includes field trips every semester. ◆ Students can take regular undergraduate course subjects from our five departments and study with Japanese students. The subjects cover areas such as: Language studies, Linguistics, Literature, Culture studies, History, Law, Commerce, Economy, Education, and Psychology among others. The language of instruction differs depending on the subject (mainly Japanese). *JLP students who are enrolled in graduate programs at their home universities are allowed to take graduate course subjects at KCUPS.)

◆ Costs

Living Cost	The estimated living cost in Kobe is 80,000 yen / month not including the accommodation cost. Students are accepted under the premise that they will concentrate mainly on their studies; Therefore students must plan to be able to cover their expenses without having to working part-time jobs while in Japan. Also, it is not easy to find and keep up with a part-time job without the necessary Japanese language fluency.
Accommodation Cost	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Initial Fee: 60,000 yen ◆ Accommodation Fee: 300,000 yen/Semester *Students must make a one-time accommodation fee payment for each semester after their arrival to KCUFS. Payments are made in Japanese yen in cash at KCUFS's nearest post office.
Tuition Fee (Fee-paying students only)	267,900 yen/semester *Students must make a one-time tuition fee payment for each semester after their arrival to KCUFS. Payments are made in Japanese yen in cash at KCUFS's nearest post office.
National Health Insurance	All JLP students are required by law to join the National Health Insurance of Japan. It costs about 10,000 yen/semester. 70 % of the medical costs in Japan will be covered by this insurance and you will only need to pay the remaining 30%.  Payment of the National Health Insurance Notices of payment (bills) for the National Health Insurance will reach your apartment by mail after you have arrived to Japan and completed the ward office registration procedures. Bills are payable at convenience stores. *Insurance premiums for one year must be paid in monthly installments from June to March (in 10 installments). Please note that the premium is calculated based on the month you arrive in Japan; if a student arrives in Japan in August, his/her premium will be higher than for those who arrive in Japan in September.

Study Abroad Insurance

All JLP students must buy study abroad insurance after arriving to Japan in order to prepare for potential risks you might face during the study abroad period which are uncovered neither by your Home Health Insurance nor by the Japanese National Health Insurance.

The study abroad insurance will cover following items;

Coverage	Insured Amount	Summary
Personal liability	100,000,000 JPY	The costs of a claim if you accidentally injure someone or damage his or her property.
Accidental death & accidental permanent disability	Out-of-pocket medical expenses	In cases where the insured sustains bodily injury resulting directly in the loss of his or her life or a physical impediment.
Hospitalization or outpatient treatment (Injury and illness)	Actual medical expenses	The costs of the medical expenses at hospitals which were not covered by the National Health Insurance
Rescuer's expenses, etc.	3,000,000 JPY	- The insured dies in an accident: rescue costs (rescue process and transportation of the insured after rescue), travel costs of the insured's legal heir to the site. - Transportation to home country in case the insured is dead. - The insured needs to be transferred to home country for an injury or illness.

◆ Notes:

✓ It is the students' responsibility to have insurance coverage throughout their journeys to and from Japan.

✓ "Japanese National Health Insurance" only covers the 70 % of the costs at hospitals. This study abroad insurance covers the rest of the costs at hospitals.

✓ All JLP students must buy this study abroad insurance since KCUFS takes no responsibility for their damages, sickness, injury and personal liability expenses during their study abroad period.

Others

✓ Bring enough cash to live in Japan for 2 or 3 weeks.
* It can sometimes take 2 or 3 weeks to receive or withdraw money from overseas bank accounts.

✓ Bring a credit card in case of having troubles to get cash in Japan.
*Debit cards are not common in Japan. Cash and credit cards are more commonly used.

◆ Scholarship Opportunities

JASSO Scholarship	Exchange students and Fee-paying students can apply for the JASSO (Japan Student Services Organization) scholarship along with their application to KCUFS. Please note that the chance of receiving JASSO scholarship is low. Therefore, all students must plan to finance their expenses without the help of this scholarship. !!NOTE!! Submitting the "JASSO Scholarship Application form" does NOT guarantee that you will be granted a JASSO Scholarship.
-------------------	---

HUMAP Scholarship	Only those students from HUMAP (Hyogo University Mobility in Asia and Pacific) members' universities are eligible for this scholarship. KCUFS will only notify the recipient's university in the case of the scholarship being awarded.

◆ Visa Information

Visa Application Procedure	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.Fill out the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) Application. Please refer to KCUFS application documents. 2.If you are accepted to KCUFS, the letter of acceptance to our university and the Certificate of Eligibility will be sent to your home university. 3.Apply for a student visa at your closest Japanese consulate/embassy, using the COE and the letter of acceptance. All students should contact the consulate/embassy directly to find out what other documents might be necessary. Note: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * The COE is NOT a visa. Students must apply for a visa at their closest Japanese consulate/embassy (outside of Japan). * Students should apply for their visa as soon as they receive the COE. * Students must apply for the visa in their home country, and it must be ready before they leave for Japan. * It is not possible to arrive in Japan on a tourist visa and then change to a student visa.
Part-time Job	JLP students are permitted to do part-time jobs for a maximum of 28 hours per-week (40 hours per-week during long academic breaks) in Japan if they have the necessary permit. Students who are considering working part time can and should apply for this permit at their closest Immigration Bureau in Japan. However, please note that KCUFS does not recommend JLP students to do part-time jobs and students must be able to finance their expenses without having to depend on working while in Japan. Note: Several restrictions apply. Breaking Japanese immigration laws or working without a permit might lead to deportation. More information will be given during the KCUFS arrival orientation.

◆ Other Information

JLP Partners	JLP partners are KCUFS students who provide personalized support and friendship to new JLP students, helping them successfully adjust to the new culture and environment in Japan. For each new JLP student, a couple of current KCUFS students become his or her partners. JLP partners begin communicating with new JLP students before their arrival in Japan to help them prepare for what's ahead at KCUFS. The partners continue to befriend and support JLP students in their daily and campus life and also offer opportunities to practice Japanese outside classes. Partners will email JLP students before they arrive to Japan so that they can consult or learn about campus life at KCUFS.
